REACH MORE HOMES BY FAR! -- ONLY THE HERALD COVERS TORRANCE WITH AUDITED CIRCULATION!!

Hey There, Pardner; Headed for Trouble?

I think you American women study law secretly, and thus have discovered all the different legal phases and meanings of partnership, and you fall upon each as eagerly as someone intent upon legal.

hara-kari-with about the same Alas, your poor beast stumbles through courtship and marriage doesn't realize what a different, wide gulf can exist between your interpretation of marriage and his. Nevertheless you delight in calling marriage a partnership; and no wonder you like the idea! The odds are five to one in your favor-looking at it legalistically

The dream of all men is that their marriage will be a universal partnership, one in which the partners jointly agree to contribute to the common fund the whole of their property of whatever character, for the future as well as the present. But out of your grab bag of tricks you

spring quite a few surprises on him, all of them apparently

Immediately after marriage you adopt one or all of several types of partnership. The nominal partnership, the one in which your name appears in connection with the marriage, but you have no interest in it. I notice is most pepular. The dormant partnership comes next in popularity. It means you are merely a passive, silent or sleeping half, in contradistinction to him who is active in conducting the marriage.

Then there are those who consider themselves a special partner. Your responsibility is restricted to the amount of your investment, and you don't invest much of yourselves.

Many of you American women, I have noticed, make a deadly stab at the partner-at-will angle. You go into marriage for no fixed period of time but only during your pleasure, which means it may be dissolved wihout no-

Wives of America, I beseech vou: Beware! You vourself may be overlooking the most dreaded of all partnerships, a secret partnership, one he hides up his

This is the existence of a secret partner who is not known to the other partner. And you all know what she is.

And voila! of your own undoing you become that last unflattering kind, the liquidating partner, who upon dissolution of your partnership, collects assets and adjusts claims. Makes you shudder, doesn't it?

So take my advice, stick to that plain, good old-fashioned type of marriage, the particular partnership, and association in which you share the benefits of a single individual because in return you act like a wife. This is
